

"There is a reason why I have used Nilesh Dalwadi from Remax as an agent for buying my first business in Canada. I like Nilesh's honest and upfront approach. I dealt with a lot of questionable real estate agents when looking for a convenience store to buy. It was refreshing to deal with Nilesh who was personable, respectful, gave the correct information, kept you updated and when he said he was going to do something, it got done.

The way Nilesh deals with you does not change whether you are doing a business with him or not. In process of buying a convenience store through Nilesh, he helped me with my bank finance within couple of days. That is why I referred him to my friends when they needed a real estate agent."
